

Name: _____

Shaping Your Place

Each year, the U.S. Postal Service issues a variety of commemorative stamps. Some of these stamps depict places or symbols of places. Here's your chance to commemorate the place you call home or some other special place. In the space below, design a commemorative stamp for a place of your choosing. Use your imagination and feel free to focus on things that are important to you.

